

Code of Conduct

Noteworthy Singers (“Choir”)

By following these guidelines, members of NoteWorthy Singers can create a positive and supportive community that fosters musical excellence and personal growth for all its members.

1. Respect: Members are expected to show respect to each other, the choir director, the audience and any other person associated with the choir. This includes refraining from any discriminatory or abusive language or behavior, and treating others with kindness, dignity, and consideration. Members are expected to avoid causing discomfort to others at any time. Members are further expected to show respect to the properties where we practice and perform and to the equipment used at all practices and performances.
2. Attendance: Members are expected to be punctual and present at all performances and other choir events and to be fully prepared. If a member cannot attend a rehearsal or event they should inform the choir director (mcjazzsinger@gmail.com) and the chair of the Membership Committee (henders@uwaterloo.ca) as soon as possible.
3. Safety: Members are expected to always prioritize safety during rehearsals, performances and other choir events, and to follow any safety guidelines or instruction provided by the choir director or the board of directors.
4. Cooperation: Members are expected to work cooperatively with each other, the choir director and any other person associated with the choir, and to contribute to the overall success of the choir.
5. Health and Wellbeing: Members are reminded not to attend rehearsals if they are unwell and to respect the physical space and wellbeing of others.
6. Scent Free: The chemicals used in scented products can make some people sick, especially those with fragrance sensitivities, allergies, asthma or other medical conditions. Help us keep the air we share healthy and fragrance free. Please do not wear perfume, cologne, aftershave or other fragrances to choir events.

7. Mission, Vision, and Values: Members are expected to embody the mission, vision, and values of the choir.

NoteWorthy Singers takes this Code of Conduct seriously to ensure our choir is a positive, friendly and welcoming environment for all our members. By becoming a member of NoteWorthy Singers, I agree to comply with the NoteWorthy Singers Code of Conduct.
